Read John 14:1-14

- What stands out for you in these verses?
- How does Jesus comfort His disciples? Does He answer all their questions?
- What is Jesus the "way" to? Why is this important?
- What does it look like to follow the way of Jesus for us today?
- Jesus says He is the only way to a healed and restored relationship with God. How do you react to this exclusive claim Jesus is making? How might our culture react to this statement?
- What do "the works" of Jesus reveal to us about the Father? Why is this significant?
- What does it mean to ask "in the name of Jesus"? Do you think what Jesus says later in John 14:15 has anything to do with asking in His name? Why or why not?
